

The Superior California Chapter of the Association of Environmental Professionals Presents:

Climate Change Debate: A New Age for CEQA?

Tuesday, August 21, 2007, 11:30 AM to 1 PM

Presenters: Whit Manley, Attorney, Remy, Thomas, Moose and Manley
Sydney Coatsworth, AICP, Vice President, EDAW
Gary Jakobs, AICP, Vice President, EDAW

The panel will use a debate style to discuss incorporation of climate change into CEQA analysis. Questions for debate will include:

- ❖ What is a substantial contribution of greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions?
- ❖ What is the cumulative context for a project's global impact?
- ❖ What are an appropriate metric and threshold for GHG emissions?
- ❖ How should effects of climate change on projects be considered?
- ❖ Is this too speculative for a significance conclusion?
- ❖ Other important questions.

The audience will have an opportunity to submit follow-up questions to the panelists.

The luncheon seminar will be held at Old Spaghetti Factory located at 1910 J Street in downtown Sacramento between 19th and 20th Streets. Please RSVP by August 15, 2007 to Janet Dallas at Janet.Dallas@edaw.com or 916-414-5877. Include your e-mail address and lunch choice in the RSVP. Cost is $20 for AEP members and $25 for non-members. Please make checks payable to AEP. Payment will be accepted at the door.

Please choose one of the following lunch options:

1. Spaghetti with Meat Sauce: Spaghetti noodles in a marinara meat sauce. Served with garden salad with either balsamic vinaigrette or creamy pesto dressing.
2. Fettuccini Alfredo: Fettuccine noodles in a butter cream sauce with shredded Romano cheese. Served with garden salad with either balsamic vinaigrette or creamy pesto dressing.
