

Cultural Resources Group Leader
Sacramento and/or San Francisco, CA

We are seeking an experienced Cultural Resources Professional to Manage a Portfolio of Projects for a new/evolving prehistoric and historic Cultural Resources Group throughout the California marketplace.

The ideal individual would have at least 8+ years of experience in working as a cultural resources professional with at least 4+ years leading a practice group in all aspects of technical and operational guidance. This would include providing all California based group oversight for the initiation, development, completion and review of research, cultural resource studies, field data collection / surveys, Phase I & II Assessments, and mitigation studies for compliance to CEQA/NEPA documentation.

Candidates must be technical experts in relation to CEQA/NEPA compliance, regulatory permitting, section 106, national historic preservation act, sacred lands file checks, State historic preservation and archaeological resources regulations. This is a divisional group leadership opportunity with direct profit/loss, budgeting, project scoping, business development, technical direction and staff mentoring responsibilities.

Requires a Degree in Archaeology, Anthropology, Cultural Resources Management or related discipline. PHD Desired. Registered California Professional Archeologist a plus to consideration. Candidates must possess excellent written and verbal communication abilities. Additional paleontology knowledge is desired.

Position can be based in Sacramento, San Francisco, Orange County or Los Angeles, California. Offering exceptional compensation and benefits in a rapidly growing and leading California Cultural Resources Firm. Paleontology capabilities

For consideration please forward resume or contact directly:

Sequence Systems

Attn: Michael DeSafey

2008 Opportunity Drive #150

Roseville, Ca 95678

Phone: 916-782-6900 x202

Fax: 916-782-6307

Email: mdesafey@sequencestaffing.com

www.sequencestaffing.com